

February 2022 speaker: Nilda Valmores and My Sister's House

Are you wondering what is happening with My Sister's House?

Or do you want to know what is that organization called My Sister's House?

How and why is it different from other organizations?

Hear from Nilda Valmores, long-time SIS member and My Sister's House Executive Director on Friday, February 18th.

Nilda has been the Executive Director for My Sister's House for 18 years. When she isn't working, she can be found hanging with her new grandchild, annoying her two children and hubby, walking her dog and granddog, working on a sudoku puzzle, or eating french fries.
